- Student account process
 - Creating a student account
 - ► FERPA consent
- Student application process
- ► Tuition Exchange Liaison Officer (TELO) responsibilities
- School profile details
- ► Academic year information
- Reports
 - ► Static Reports
 - Query Reports
- What's Next
 - Current system clean-up
 - ► Training

Student Account Process

Students create an account

- Inside the account, students can:
 - Modify school choices
 - Add and delete schools
 - ► The maximum number of schools is 10
 - ▶ Update biographical details, email address, and phone number
- Students cannot change any employee (parent) information
 - If the employee or employer information requires a change, a new application is required
- Students can create only one (1) account
 - Decrease, maybe even eliminate duplicate apps
 - Eliminates the dual-parent employed at different member school issue

Creating a student account

 The new account process has a specific web address

- It is vital that the student pay attention when creating the account
- The account email is the email of record
- By checking the box, the student agrees that either school can discuss TE scholarship issues with the employee of record

FERPA consent

The student has the option to click the box

If not clicked, FERPA consent is not provided

The FERPA statement is provided only at the time of app creation

If the student wants to remove the consent, it must be done in writing at the school
